Notes

¹ Persons who completed their doctorate at the University of Basel can be temporarily employed as postdocs for work and publishing related to their doctorate. They should only be offered an extension to their contract if this does not risk their career prospects, cf. Guidelines for Postdocs at the Faculty of Business and Economics (Leitlinien Postdoktorierende an der Wirtschaftswissenschaftlichen Fakultät).

² Postdocs whose employment aims at furthering academic qualification should be offered an extension of 4 years after the initial 2 years (2+4), otherwise two renewals of 2 year each may be offered (2+2+2).

³ In the case of project based employment it is possible to depart from the prescribed duration of employment of 2+4 or 2+2+2 years.
